STREET TALK.

Ilfeld's ad. tells how to make money.
Some business changes will occur on the first of the month.

A letter for A. G. Hillen, a typo, awaits him at this office, from Trinidad, Colo.

The "Blue Stars" won yesterday's game, the score standing 14 to 6 in their favor.

The train from the east is reported two hours late, this evening. It will arrive at 7:20.

The Columbia opera company can be depended upon as a first-class troupe at popular prices.

The new moon couldn't assert itself last night, on account of the dark and threatening clouds.

The Otero guards are up and doing their drill work and will hold another meeting, to-night.

Little Hannah Jacobs was thrown from a burro on Bridge street, yesterday, and had her left arm broken.

Ernest Bloom is up from Arizona with six cars of cattle and leaves for our sister Territory again, this evening.

The assessor expects to be through with the tax rolls and deliver them to the county collector, by the 10th or 15th of next month.

P. C. Crews has sold his Highland ranch, in the Beulah neighborhood, to T. T. Tupper, who is stocking it with a nice bunch of dairy cattle.

A diamond ring was stolen from the wife of Operator Crawford, yesterday, and, to her credit, she succeeded in covering her tracks.

Hilario Padilla, aged seventeen years, was married to Miss Ruperta Gonzales, aged nineteen, in the west side Catholic church, at 6 o'clock, this morning.

The rumor comes up from Albuquerque on the subject of the wind that Miss Clara H. Olsen, of the Duke city, will soon be led to the hymeneal altar by a promising native attorney of that place.

Olga Murray, the young man who had his leg broken a couple of weeks ago, by falling from a bicycle, while riding in Lincoln park, is out on crutches and hopes within a short time to again mount the treacherous wheel.

In the rush and hurry of getting out Tax Office, Saturday evening, the Episcopal church announcement was overlooked, and failed to appear in that issue of the paper. The reporter's fault, this time. Beg pardon.

Wm. T. Reed, the tonsorial artist, is rejoicing in the advent of a bouncing baby boy, the infant piece of humanity, not fitting in an appearance early Saturday morning. This makes a four-horse team for "Billy" to handle, two boys and two girls.

Henry L. Lyons, the old-timer, who died, recently, in Colfax county, is said to have had money deposited in several banks of the Territory, the sum of $25,000 in a Las Vegas banking institution. He had no known relatives, but a "colored dove" is now claiming to have been his lawful wife. "Twas always thus, you know!"

Prof. J. A. Wood and family returned, Saturday night, from quite an extended trip in the east. The professor, after attending the national educational association at Milwaukee, visited the university of Chicago, the state university of Indiana and other educational institutions. He seems to have enjoyed his educational tour very much, and returns with renewed energy and enthusiasm to engage in his work in Las Vegas.

At the grand musicals, by the ladies of the Eastern Star, next Wednesday evening, Mrs. H. H. Wheelock will make her first appearance before the public, since her return to the city. Miss Hattie Knickerbocker and Mrs. R. C. Rankin will also appear in songs. Miss Edith Rothgeb and Louis Hild, will render violin solos, and the Meadow quartet will be heard. At the close of the exercises, there will be dancing and refreshments—all for fifty cents.

It has been suggested, for what it is worth, that the ice man sells his tongue a good many times over in a season; the grocer sells wrapping paper at from five to thirty cents a pound; the manufacturer sells lumber that he uses in packing certain goods at gross big prices per pound, and the meat merchants get good prices for old raw paper. In all cases but the first, the buyer gets the goods.

Those who ride in buggies, on bicycles or any vehicle, say an authority, should always remember that on crossing a street or highway, the persons on foot have the right of way. The law says so, and if you injure a pedestrian by careless riding or driving, you are responsible. No one is required to run across the street to keep out of the way of bicycles or vehicles. The riders are the ones to look out for a clear track.

CHattel Mortgages.

The Sections of Law as Found in the Statute Books of New Mexico.

The law relative to renewal of chattel mortgages reads: (Section 1889, C. L. 1884). Every mortgage shall be void as against the creditors of the person making the same, or against subsequent purchasers or mortgagees in good faith, after the expiration of one year after the filing thereof; unless within thirty days next preceding the expiration of the term of one year from such filing; and each year thereafter the mortgagee, his agent or attorney, shall make an affidavit, exhibiting the interest of the mortgagee in the property at the time last aforesaid, claimed by virtue of said mortgage; and if said mortgage is to secure the payment of money, the amount yet due and unpaid. (Such affidavit must be recorded in the office of the probate clerk, as per section 1, of chapter 75, laws of 1890.)

The law relative to satisfaction of chattel mortgages, reads: (Sec. 1894, C. L. 1884). When any mortgage of personal property shall have been fully paid or satisfied, it shall be the duty of the mortgagee, his assignee or personal representative, to enter satisfaction, or cause satisfaction thereof to be entered of record, under the head of remarks, on the record of mortgages, and any mortgagee, or assignee of such mortgage, who shall neglect or refuse to enter satisfaction of such mortgage, as is provided by mortgage, shall be liable in damages to such mortgagee, his grantee or heirs, in the sum of one hundred dollars to be recovered in a civil action, before the district court; and the sum of one hundred dollars aforesaid, shall be regarded as fixed and liquidated damages in any such case.

Prof. Soon Otfeld, of Minneapolis, will return to the Montezuma, after a week's sojourn in the mountains.

O. W. Butt, of Kansas City, left for that place, to-day. His family will remain, for some time, at the Montezuma.

A picnic party has been arranged to visit the hot springs, to-morrow, the children going out to the resort on burros and the old folk on the train.

Mrs. Joseph Waddingham had her hand scratched by a cat at the hot springs, on Saturday, either in the ladies' bathing apartments, or from a cat on the veranda.

Wm. King, one of the incorporators of the Montezuma Hotel Co., mentioned elsewhere in this paper, was formerly manager of the Mountain house at Las Vegas hot springs, and he may know perfectly well what he's about.

A large party of guest of the Montezuma went up to El Povernir, on Thursday, getting the full benefit of the closing features of the rainy season, on the way.

But the rain did not seem to effect the spirits of the young people, and two stages full came back, singing "Home, sweet home," with feeling and expression.

Prof. John A. Hand has made arrangements with the management of the Montezuma hotel to give a dance in the casino of that hostelry once a month. They will be 12 o'clock affairs and no upper will be served.

The first dance of the season will take place on September 9th, and other parties or organizations contemplating entertainments of the kind, would do well to remember the date that they may not conflict.
